BIO:

Hafitha Suzane Derani received her ijaza in Tajwid at the age of 15 and completed the memorization of the Qur'an shortly after. She subsequently received her ijaza in the 10 canonical readings (qira'at) of Qur'an in 2023. She graduated with a B.A. in European and Middle Eastern history with a focus on secondary education. She is an educator with extensive experience teaching Qur'an to students of all ages and backgrounds for over twenty years. She also taught history and Islamic Studies to middle and high school students. With her traditional training and classical teaching experience, Hafitha Suzane has taught multi-level individualized and group classes for children, teens, and adults. Additionally, she has held motivational workshops for teens and women on how to excel in their Qur'an studies. Hafitha Suzane released her first Islamic children's book, The Quran My Best Friend, in the month of Ramadan, 2020. She currently lives in Michigan with her family where she continues to teach Qur'an. She serves as a board member for the Rahmah Foundation. Hafitha Suzane continues to further her studies in the different sciences of the Qur'an with scholars around the world as well as write books for children and mentor youth.
